

***MEDIA ALERT ***

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Courtney Daily Declares Candidacy for District 5 City Council Seat

Bloomington, January 15, 2024 — Courtney Daily, former chapter lead of Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America, officially announced her intent to caucus for the District 5 City Council chair on January 14, 2024. With a commitment to fostering community inclusivity and addressing socio-economic disparities, Daily brings a wealth of experience and a proven track record of advocacy.

In her announcement, Daily emphasized her dedication to creating a sense of belonging for all community members. Recognizing the significant socio-economic disparities within the community, she articulated a vision to bridge existing gaps and ensure equitable access to essential resources for every resident.

Key Tenets of Daily's Platform:

1. Universal Access to Crucial Resources: Daily advocates for equality, emphasizing the importance of providing all residents with access to fundamental necessities such as mental health support, healthcare, child care, and affordable housing. She envisions a community where these crucial resources are not privileges but accessible to all.
2. Strengthening Diversity and Inclusivity: Acknowledging Bloomington's cultural richness, Daily underscores the need to amplify efforts to welcome a more diverse range of voices and backgrounds, fostering an inclusive environment for all.
3. Government Transparency: Daily believes in the community's right to transparent governance. She pledges to uphold transparency in all her actions, ensuring constituents have a representative who operates openly and in the best interests of the community.

Drawing on her nearly decade-long leadership at Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America, Daily possesses extensive qualifications for the City Council role. Her proven track record in navigating complex issues and addressing diverse perspectives positions her as a candidate prepared to tackle the complexities of city governance.

As a mother of three, educator, and precinct committeeperson, Daily brings a multifaceted perspective to the role. Her ability to build alliances and navigate challenging discussions underscores her commitment to positive change and the greater good for Bloomington.

For media inquiries, please contact:

Courtney Daily, (646) 226-3176 / courtneymelissa@gmail.com

About Courtney Daily

Courtney Daily is a dedicated advocate and community leader with a background in addressing critical issues. With a focus on inclusivity, transparency, and equitable access to resources, she aims to bring positive change to Bloomington through her candidacy for the District 5 City Council seat.

###