

Statement read aloud by Bloomington 06 precinct committee chair Natalia Galvan at the conclusion of the Democratic Party's vacancy caucus for county auditor, which was held on Feb. 10, 2024.

"Due to the multiple conflicts of interest the Chair has stemming from his current candidacy in a contested Democratic primary, the Chair is unable to maintain the neutrality required to preside over a contested caucus. Therefore, the Chair must recuse himself from any such caucus. If the chair fails to do so, I call upon the qualified voters of all future contested caucuses to disqualify the chair from presiding over those caucuses."
