League of Women Voters to Hold Forum for Democrats Seeking Nomination to US House of Representatives on Saturday April 6

The public is invited to a Zoomed forum on Saturday, April 6 with Democrats seeking nomination to the US House of Representatives from Indiana's District 9. Co-sponsors of the event are the Leagues of Women Voters of Bloomington-Monroe County and Brown County, the Big Ten Voting Challenge, the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce, IU PACE (Political and Civic Engagement), Kappa Tau Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Monroe County NOW, Monroe County Branch NAACP, and the South Central Indiana Citizens' Climate Lobby.

The Zoom forum will take place from 9:00 to 10:30 am. D. Liam Dorris and Timothy (Tim) Peck will participate. The moderator will be Sonia Leerkamp, former Hamilton County Prosecutor and League of Women Voters Brown County Vice President.

Pre-registration is required. The link is available at Candidate Forum \(Democrat\): U.S. House of Representatives, District 9 - Events - League of Women Voters of Bloomington-Monroe County \(lwv-bmc.org\)

Republican candidates in their contested race were invited to a separate forum but declined to participate.

Community Access Television Services (CATS) through the Monroe County Public Library has been invited to record the forums.
