Bloomington Police Respond to Shots Fired

June 23, 2026, at 7:41 p.m.

The Monroe County Central Emergency Dispatch Center received multiple 911 calls reporting a shooting in the 1000 block of North Summit Street. Callers reported that an individual had fired multiple rounds into a white GMC SUV before fleeing the area.

Patrol officers and detectives responded to the scene and determined that a known male suspect fired approximately seven to eight rounds into the SUV following a verbal altercation with the vehicle's driver. At the time of the incident, the SUV was occupied by three adults and four children.

No injuries were reported.

The suspect fled the scene and has not yet been located.

Detectives continue to interview witnesses and review available surveillance footage as the investigation remains ongoing.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to contact Detective Kevin Frank at (812) 349-3322.

No further information is available for release at this time.
